

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Welcome to Our 77th Season: 2024-2025!

On behalf of the Central Kentucky Youth Orchestras, it is my honor to welcome you to what promises to be an unforgettable season. Your presence here tonight and your continued support throughout the year means the world to us. Whether you're a long-time attendee or joining us for the first time, we are thrilled to have you as part of our orchestra family.

This season, we are excited to showcase the incredible talents of our young musicians and know you will be amazed at the progress and growth each ensemble shows throughout the season. Some highlights of the year ahead include collaborations with several community arts organizations including the Lexington Theatre Company and the Lexington Ballet; special performances that celebrate our community programs: Friends in Music and MusicWorks; and a world premiere of a commissioned work commemorating Lexington's 250th birthday in 2025.

Behind every note our orchestras play, there is a dedicated community of people whose support makes our work possible. I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to our tireless staff, conductors, and board for their leadership, vision, and commitment to providing the best opportunities for our young musicians. To the school teachers and private lesson instructors, your passion and guidance have transformed these students into the exceptional artists we see on stage today.

A special thanks to the families and friends of our musicians—your encouragement, time, and love form the backbone of their success. To the CKYO alumni who continue to inspire our current members, and to all those whose generosity keeps our programs thriving, we are deeply grateful.

As we look forward to all the performances and events this season, we do so with a sense of excitement, hope, and gratitude. Thank you for being a part of this incredible 77 year journey of CKYO, and know we can't wait to share this year's musical adventures with you.

Warmly,

Kirsten Clingerman

MARCELLO CORMIO

*CKYO Music Director
Conductor, Symphony & Concert Orchestras*

Italian conductor Marcello Cormio begins his eighth season as CKYO's Music Director.

Throughout his career, he has distinguished himself for his energetic style and engaging persona on the podium, and refined musical approach to the score. His work ranges from operatic and symphonic conducting to coaching singers to education at all levels.

The 2023-24 season marked his debut with Tri-Cities and Syracuse Opera conducting Jorge Sosa's I am a dreamer who no longer dreams, and with the Santa Fe Pro Musica Orchestra. In 2024 he was also a guest conductor at the Manhattan School of Music for a production of Puccini's La rondine.

Cormio has been a frequent guest conductor at the Sarasota Opera, leading productions of Don Giovanni, Le nozze di Figaro, Così fan tutte, Les pêcheurs de perles, among others.

The South Florida Classical praised him as "an assured hand in the pit, conducting the score with vitality while leaving the singers room to breathe in their solos...the young Italian drew vital and spirited playing, with the fizzing ensemble exciting, yet with a fine balancing of solo voices, chorus and orchestra."

As a symphonic conductor, Cormio has been recently named Music Director of the Lexington Chamber Orchestra. He has appeared with orchestras around the United States and Europe, including the San Antonio Symphony, the Orchestra della Società dei Concerti di Bari, the Bacau Symphony, and the Orchestra Sinfonica della Città Metropolitana di Bari.

Cormio's commitment to education has been constant and all-encompassing throughout his career. He devotes the majority of his time and energies to his work as Music Director of the Central Kentucky Youth Orchestras, sharing his inexhaustible passion for music with hundreds of young talents every year and contributing to building the future generations of orchestra musicians. He has also been on the faculty of the University of Kentucky as Director of the University of Kentucky Philharmonia Orchestra for five years.

In the educational realm, he has been active as an opera conductor and coach throughout his career, both at academic institutions and in summer music festivals. He has led productions of L'elisir d'amore, Così fan tutte and A Room with a View at the Michigan State University, and Street Scene at the West Virginia University.

Cormio is sought after as a faculty at summer opera festivals, such the Savannah Voice Festival (Hansel and Gretel), the Bay View Music Festival (Die Zauberflöte), La Musica Lirica (La Traviata), Opera do Recife (Brazil), Prague Summer Nights (Czech Republic), Classic Lyric Arts - Berkshires. He was also the Artistic Director of the Opera Lucca Festival in Lucca, Italy, for three editions.

Cormio holds graduate degrees in piano, composition, conducting, and musicology from Italian conservatories and universities, as well as a Master of Music degree from Indiana University and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Kentucky

RALEIGH DAILEY

Jazz Repertory & Jazz Arts Orchestra Director

Raleigh Dailey is an internationally recognized jazz pianist, composer, scholar, and educator. He studied at Kent State University (B.M., 1991), the University of North Texas (M.M., 1996), and the University of Kentucky (Ph.D., 2007). He has performed widely throughout the United States, North and South America, Europe, and Asia. In 2002 he was selected to perform at the 3rd Annual International Martial Solal Jazz Piano Competition in Paris, France. He is the pianist/composer for the DiMartino/Osland Jazz Orchestra, the Raleigh Dailey Trio, Tandem, and the Osland/Dailey Jazztet, which has performed most recently at the Montreux Jazz Festival (Switzerland) and the North Sea Jazz festival (Rotterdam, Holland).

Raleigh has performed with many notable artists in the jazz field and beyond, including: Joe Lovano, Tom Harrell, Peter Evans, Tom Scott, Bill Watrous, Sam Rivers, Bob Mintzer, Rudresh Mahanthappa, Chester Thompson, Wycliffe Gordon, Nicholas Payton, Lew Soloff, Jeff Coffin, Howard Levy, Jim Snidero, Dave Pietro, Ed Shaughnessy, Aretha Franklin, Emil Richards, John Fedchock, Joe Porcaro, Rex Richardson, Jerry Steinholtz, Denis DiBlasio, Gregg Bissonette, Chris Vadala, Christian Howes, Zach Brock, Allen Vizzutti, Louie Bellson, David Sanchez, Laura Bell Bundy, Jim Walker, Mike Smith, Jason Stein, Tim Daisy, and many others.

Raleigh is in high demand as a composer and arranger; his works have been performed and recorded by numerous college, university, military, and professional jazz ensembles. His most recent chamber works are Mirage (for soprano saxophone and piano) and Conversations for Trombone and Piano. He was the recipient of the Al Smith Fellowship for Musical Composition sponsored by the Kentucky Arts Council and has published articles in IAJE Research Papers, "The Encyclopedia of Appalachia," "Saxophone Journal," "Jazz Improv Magazine," "Jazz Inside Magazine," "Music Reference Services Quarterly," "Notes," "Fontes Artis Musicae," and "Teaching Music Through Performance in Jazz."

Raleigh also is active in free improvisation, both as a performer and as a curator of many such events in Lexington. He is the founder of Llama Records, which focuses on jazz and creative improvised music and was the subject of a recent article in Down Beat magazine. His recordings for this label include What Happened Next, Measure From Zero (with Peter Evans), Opening Lines (with Tim Daisy and Jason Stein), and Essays for Solo Piano.

As Associate Professor of Jazz Studies at the University of Kentucky, Dailey teaches courses in jazz piano, improvisation, and small and large jazz ensembles. Under his direction, the UK Jazz Ensemble, Lab Band, and Jazz Combos have performed regionally and nationally at various jazz festivals, including the International Jazz Education Network Conference.

SCHOOLS & TEACHERS

Thank you to all our private and school music teachers. CKYO affirms its support for all public and private school instrumental music programs and we recognize, appreciate, and value the critical role private and school music teachers play in the development of all our student musicians. This season, our students come from 12 counties and almost 40 different schools in Central Kentucky.

DID YOU KNOW?

CKYO does not charge families the tuition amount that is equal to the full cost of running the audition-based orchestras. CKYO Tuition only pays for 64% of what it costs CKYO to provide this high-quality orchestral experience to students. Tuition dollars do not pay for any of CKYO's Community Programs (Friends in Music or MusicWorks), nor does it pay for more than 25% of administrative overhead.

Donations and participation in CKYO Fundraisers like the Good Giving Challenge (December 2-6, 2024), the HundredX Causes Surveys this fall, and restaurant nights help CKYO balance the budget and keep tuition as affordable as possible.

If you would like to contribute to our General Fund to help keep tuition at this level, scan the QR code to make an additional tax deductible donation!
